CLERMONT LEADER PASSES ON

Charles F. Jenkins, Civic Worker Clermont Harbor, Buried at N. O. Monday

Clermont Harbor and this entire section of the Mississippi west coast section of Hancock county sustained a serious loss in the passing away of Charles F. Jenkins, who died at a New Orleans hospital Sunday afternoon at 3:25 o'clock, following an illness and surgical operation. His funeral was held Monday afternoon from a funeral home in that city and he was laid away "at rest" in Greenwood cemetery, New Orleans.

The deceased was in his 65th year, and had been ailing for quite a while. Retired from active business some years ago, Mr. Jenkins and his devoted wife moved from New Orleans and made their home at Clermont Harbor, a place he liked so well.

His wife, formerly Miss Elizabeth Floyd, James Jenkins, a brother, and three sisters, Mrs. Ida Staub, Mrs. Minnie Keith and Mrs. Rosa List survive. He was well and widely known and the last rites were attended by many people in all walks of life, paying tribute to the memory of one who had been more than ordinarily esteemed. He was a man of sterling worth and it was a natural sequence that success abundantly would come to him as a reward in later years.

It was not generally known he had been taken to New Orleans, in fact, that he was ill, and the news of his death was received as a shock and the message carried wide-spread sorrow.

Mr. Jenkins was an ardent and after a strenuous session of Congress, in which he played so active and effective part in his usual constructive manner, after a tour of the California Coast and far-west Pacific Coast, and a visit to President Roosevelt, is shortly expected back to his Mississippi Coast home, where he will rest for a while before making an informal tour of certain sections of the State.

He will receive a warm ovation on the occasion of his home-coming and will be greeted with renewed enthusiasm wherever he may visit before resuming his activities when Congress again convenes this winter.

News Notes From Bay King's Daughters Hospital For the Current Week

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Wyatt announce the birth of a fine boy, 8 1/2 pounds, born at the hospital September 22. Mrs. Cleveland before her marriage was Miss Edwina Haas.

Mr. Cyril (Pat) Ladner, well-known resident of Bay St. Louis, and for many years connected with the local station department of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, was seriously ill with heart ailment.

Mrs. Hall Seal and baby were discharged from the hospital this week and returned to their home in the country.

Rummage Sale to Be Given Benefit King's Daughters' Hospital

Announcement is made of an early rummage sale, next week, place to be announced, for benefit Bay St. Louis King's Daughters' Hospital. In the meantime contributions of clothing for men, women and children, is solicited and same may be left at the home of Miss Ida Edwards, Washington street. There is no nobler and worthy cause than the local hospital and the public always responds generously to the cause. This time, surely will be no exception.

substantial booster for Clermont Harbor, substantiating his belief in the present and future of the place as an ideal location of residence by constructing there some years ago one of the better houses on the main boulevard, a dwelling of pressed brick.

He was active in civic affairs, a charter member of the Clermont Harbor Association and a factor in the building of the public recreation pier at that place, associating himself with the best and leading spirit of the place and actively co-operating in whatever move was calculated to serve the public good, a doer and builder.

While not only missed by his wide circle of friends in New Orleans, where he formerly resided, and locally as well for his splendid personality in his passing away Clermont Harbor has lost one of its best friends and his death is a matter of deep regret.

DEM. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO MEET THIS FRIDAY P. M.

Recount of Votes Kiln Box Will be Sought by Supervisor Candidate

A special meeting of Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee has been called, to be held at the county courthouse this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock to hear claims for a proposed contest in Beat No. 4, in which the two candidates Jack Low and Desire Ladner are affected, attorneys to represent the cause. The allegation of irregularity involves the Kiln box, and a recount and revision will be asked for, the complainant, Desire Ladner, alleging that a number of voters casting ballots were not qualified, according to the statutes, which provide that a qualified elector be 21 years of age within a certain time limitation.

It is also understood should a recount be granted the result might affect the result for county superintendent of education wherein Kenneth McCarty, of Kiln, and D. J. Everett, Bay St. Louis, are concerned. It will be remembered Mr. McCarty captured the nomination by a close margin of only 14 votes.

The Democratic Executive Committee possesses prerogatives not questioned by the courts and its decisions are supreme and final, predicated its decisions, or course, on the assumption of all that is fair and just and within the bounds of reason.

The outcome, however, will be watched with more than ordinary interest. Leo W. Seal, is chairman and Lamar Otis, secretary.

DELAMIN FUNERAL SATURDAY

Victim of Auto Accident in California to be Buried in Bay St. Louis

Remains of Ernest von Gohren Delamin, killed in an auto accident Monday at Woodland, California, will reach Bay St. Louis Saturday morning by way of New Orleans, arriving on train No. 4, reaching here about 10:30 o'clock. Remains will be taken to Christ Episcopal church, North Beach Boulevard and Carroll avenue, where last rites will be held, the Rev. Gerault Jones, rector, conducting the ceremony. Relatives and friends of the family invited.

Ernest Delamin, aged 31 years, former resident of New Orleans, and for a while in Bay St. Louis, was a native of Alabama, to which place his parents had moved from Bay St. Louis. For fifteen years in New Orleans he worked for the United States Army Engineering Corps and was also engaged in the contracting business. Six years ago he moved to California, joining the C. and H. Sugar Refining Company at Crockett. He was hurt when his car crashed into an interurban train on the main street of Woodland, where he had driven with a friend from Crockett.

He is survived by his father, Ernest C. Delamin of New Orleans; a sister, Mrs. C. O. Johnson of New York; and four brothers, John O. and Frederick W. Delamin of New Orleans, Creswell C. Delamin of New York and Donald Delamin of Crockett, Cal.

Ernest Delamin was a grandson of the late Dr. and Mrs. L. H. von Gohren of Bay St. Louis, a nephew of Mrs. Walter J. Gex, Sr., also of this city, and of Herman von Gohren, resident of New Orleans. He is well remembered here by many of the younger folk.

Interment will be in the family underground vault, Cedar Rest Cemetery, alongside the remains of his mother, who, before her marriage was Miss Lette von Gohren, and who passed away only a few years ago.

HANCOCK COUNTY CHAPTER RED CROSS MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of Hancock County Chapter Red Cross will be held at City Hall Friday afternoon 2:30 P. M.

All members are urged to be present to formulate plans for regional conference.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT

To Be Held Oct. 7.—Corporations to Be Asked Why Failure to Pay Dividends Allegedly Promised

At the direction of Chancellor D. M. Russell, a Special Term of the Chancery Court has been called to be held on the first Monday of October, in Hancock County, the regular July Term having been pretermitted. The docket is quite heavy, due to the fact that this is the probate term, and Guardianship and Estate accounts will be heard at this time. There are also a number of litigated cases to be taken up by the court, among them being a suit filed by Mrs. Evelyn H. Conner, against the Standard Fruit and Steamship Corporation, and a number of other corporations alleged by Mrs. Conner to be subsidiaries of that corporation. The allegations of the bill of complaint in this suit are to the effect that Mrs. Conner subscribed to a syndicate formed for the purpose of taking stock in the corporation, which stock, she alleges, was to be a $7.00 Cumulative Preferred stock.

The bill further alleges that although the stock was issued on that basis, that no dividends were ever paid thereon, and that without her consent, the corporation has attempted to reorganize on a basis by which the dividends will be reduced to $3.00 instead of $7.00, and the cumulative feature cancelled, the effect of which, the bill alleges, is to reduce the value of her stock to approximately $40.00 per share, whereas, Mrs. Conner claims that, had her stock would be worth, approximately $163.00 per share.

The bill further alleged that certain railroads in Mississippi either owed money to the Standard Fruit and Steamship Corporation, and its alleged subsidiaries, and prayed for an attachment against those railroads for whatever funds or property they might have in their hands belonging to or due any of the main defendants. An inspection of the files shows that answers have been filed by certain of the railroads, to the effect that they have funds belonging to some of the main defendants amounting to approximately $15,000.00, and also that at the time of service of process, they had in their possession some eight hundred car loads of bananas, the value of which is not stated.

PLAN BUS SPECIAL FOR COAST

Commuters Hope To Travel By Teche-Greyhound Special After 'Short-cut' Finished

New Orleans, La., Sept. 26.—Commuters between New Orleans and points on the Gulf coast will be able to avail themselves of a commuters' bus service following the completion and opening of the short cut route to the Mississippi coast, Edward Schwartz, president of the Mississippi coast New Orleans Association, said this morning.

Announcement of the proposed service was made to Mr. Schwartz by O. C. Townsend, president of the Teche-Greyhound bus line.

New equipment will be purchased for the service, Mr. Schwartz said, and busses operating on improved time schedules will have commuters in New Orleans for 8:30 a. m. and leave here for the coast around 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Special commuters' rates will be offered, he said.

The Mississippi Coast New Orleans Association is composed of commuters between the two points. Mr. Schwartz said. Following a meeting of the executive committee of the association this afternoon in the board room in the Pere Marquette building Charles A. Gordon, secretary, announced that the association now has a paid membership of 150.

OPERATOR FOR L. & N. TO BE PLACED AT LAKE CATHERINE, ORDERED

Association of Gulf Coast Commuters Register Complaint Irregular Service

In response to a request of the Mississippi Coast-New Orleans Association, made up of Gulf Coast commuters, Ira F. Schwegel, general passenger agent of the Louisville and Nashville railroad for its lines south of Birmingham, has ordered the placing of a telegraph operator at Lake Catherine station, Edward Schwartz, president of the association, announced Monday.

The association had stated that there are no operators on duty at any point between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans at the time when the 5:20 p. m. train out of New Orleans passes, and complained that this train consequently is subjected to many delays. Mr. Schwegel informed the association that the operator at Lake Catherine has been assigned "so that the dispatching of trains might have more careful attention."

Failure to have an operator on the line between New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, it has been generally stated, is responsible for the serious delays of evenings of Coast trains, the delays frequently, it is said, of from one to two hours duration. This is caused by a recent radical change in schedule of through trains. Without a local train dispatcher en route it is dangerous to venture, hence the delays.

Local commuters have registered such complaints that further and continued patronage was endangered, hence the placing of an operator. Curtailment of operating expenses does not always work to advantage in practically any business, and railroads are no exception.

LEGION POST TO INSTALL

Clement R. Bontemps Post Officers to Be Installed At Woodman Hall October 3

S. L. Engman of Bay St. Louis, recently elected commander of Clement R. Bontemps Post, of the American Legion, Hancock county, and other officers to serve for the ensuing year will be duly installed in office on the evening of Thursday, October 3.

Officers recently elected include: S. L. Engman, First Vice Commander. Laurent Dickson, First Vice Commander. Louis Banderet, Second Vice Commander.

W. B. Graham, Adjutant. Willie Green, Service Officer. Fred E. Fayard, Finance Officer. Capt. C. M. Burghdahl, Historian. Commander-elect Engman has invited the officers of the Joe Graham Post of Gulfport to conduct the installation ceremonies and J. O. Jones, commander of the Gulfport Post, has been designated by department headquarters to serve as installing officer for the occasion. The full American Legion ceremonial of installation will be used and Commander Jones will be assisted by the other officers of the Gulfport post in conferring the obligation on the new officers. More than fifty legionnaires will come from Gulfport to Bay St. Louis for the meeting, accompanied by the locomotive of Coast Vulture of the 40 and 8 and 2 detail from the drum and bugle corps of the Sons of the American Legion.

The Clement R. Bontemps Post at Bay St. Louis is the only post of the Legion in Hancock county, and Commander Engman has invited every world war veteran in the county to attend the meeting when installation ceremony will be held. It promises to be quite an event in local legionnaire circles and will give the post new impetus. Commander-elect Engman's administration will add to the continued success of the organization.

Friends and acquaintances from all sections attended the obsequies and as an outward mark of sympathy and sorrow numerous floral offerings, banked the newly-mounded grave. The numerous outpouring of friends and generous lavishness of flowers combined testified and well emphasized the fact the deceased was universally known and esteemed.

Contract For Bay St. Louis Postoffice Building Received

All former bids rejected, new ones for construction Bay St. Louis post-office building were opened a few days ago. Dye & Mullings, contractors and builders of Columbia, Miss., were lowest bidders over two other firms. Dye & Mullings bid, $32,185; Collins Bros., Biloxi, $32,003; Pittman Bros. Construction Company, New Orleans, $32,987. Bids and figures submitted have been forwarded to federal authorities for further action.

FOOD PRICES
Retail food prices have increased about 14.9 per cent in the past two years, according to figures prepared by the Labor Department. Meat foods, however, show greater gains, with sliced bacon up 94.9 per cent, pork chops 86.3 per cent, and hens 42.4 per cent.

CITIZEN IS LAID TO REST

Cyril Ladner, Native, 61, Passes Away Wednesday A. M.—Valued Attaché L. & N. R. R.

Passing away of Mr. Ladner removes from our midst one who enjoyed the regard and good will of the entire community. "Pat," as he was affectionately called by all who knew him, enjoyed the esteem of all.

For possibly twenty-five years a local attaché of the resident force of the Louisville & Nashville R. R. Company, as baggage master, he was personally known by all travelers of the railroad, coming and going to this section, and it was his uniform courtesy and consistent willingness to accommodate and efficiency that made him a valued employee of the corporation he served. Like all employees of railroads, he was wedded to his work. Dhty was his watchword. He never failed his post, regardless of time or circumstance, and, in addition to his loyalty to duty he was a fine citizen, a true friend and a home-maker. What better tribute may be paid a man?

Within the space of a period of only a few weeks apart, the Angel of Death has invaded the ranks of the Delmas Ladner family and two brothers have bowed to the inevitable summons.

Wednesday morning Cyril (Pat) Ladner, native of Bay St. Louis, aged 61 years, passed away peacefully at the King's Daughters Hospital of this city, following an illness of three weeks and moved to the hospital earlier in the week, victim of a heart affection.

Mr. Ladner's brother, former City Commissioner Sylvan J. Ladner, died of heart attack August 1, of this year.

He was the youngest of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Ladner, pioneer and representative family of this section of Hancock county. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Joseph L. Favre and Mrs. Emma Ladner, two brothers, Victor Ladner of Lakeshore and Justice of the Peace-elect Alcide Ladner of Bay St. Louis. He was an uncle of Clerk of the Courts A. G. Favre, of Bay St. Louis. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews, all prominent residents locally.

Remains were exposed at the old family homestead, out Citizen street Wednesday and Thursday, the funeral taking place on the afternoon of the latter day, the Rev. Leo F. Fahey, of the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf conducting the last rites both at the house and church and finally at the place of burial in Cedar Rest Cemetery.

Friends and acquaintances from all sections attended the obsequies and as an outward mark of sympathy and sorrow numerous floral offerings, banked the newly-mounded grave. The numerous outpouring of friends and generous lavishness of flowers combined testified and well emphasized the fact the deceased was universally known and esteemed.

OUR SCHOOLS ARE IMPORTANT

THE average citizens of Bay St. Louis, even the parents, fail to appreciate the importance of the opening of our public schools. Every year about the same time the newspaper is filled with stories about teachers and pupils getting back to work. Even editors, at times, look stolidly at the procession of news that trickles in about scholastic activity.

It is one of the peculiar characteristics of humanity that we do not attach proper importance to the training of young children. Somehow, or other, we feel that they will grow up, and in some mysterious fashion acquire sufficient intelligence and wisdom to "get along." We let them do the best they can, seldom inquiring into the factors which would assist their development.

The public schools of the nation are probably the greatest asset, in point of returns, that we have. Because our state has progressed to the point where the opportunity to learn is offered to every child we undervalue intrinsic worth. We are prone to attach importance to exclusive possessions, forgetting that the race of man moves forward as a unit, not as an individual.

We have seen hundreds of schools open in Mississippi. Hancock county has its share. Thousands of hopeful little souls go into the classroom, to be made or marred by a rigorous society which decrees that they must. What happens to them there? How and what thoughts are engendered into their immature minds, or what social faculties are given them at school?

Surely, if the adults of this great nation catch the vision of regeneration that would come if all our pupils could be taught the worship of truth, the value of humanity and the duty of life in its fullness, we would have a better citizenship, a better opportunity and the joys of life would be manifold.

The goal of education is not necessarily intelligence. Rather the justification of schools is in preparing children to live as adult members of society, with an understanding of the nobility of earning whatever one acquires, an appreciation of certain cardinal virtues, and a willingness to serve capably in whatever station of life one may fill.

PUBLIC PIER FOR WAVELAND

THERE is a strong sentiment crystalizing in Waveland for the building and public ownership of a pier for the accommodation of visitors and others deprived of the advantages such pier would afford.

We understand city officials are seriously planning such project and hope to be able to build without little or no additional burden to tax-payers. It is hoped, we understand, to build such pier either piecemeal or on the installment plan, so many hundred feet at one time, another section at some other period when finances will permit and thus, in time, the entire structure assembled will have become a reality.

A pier, affording such facilities as fishing, boating and swimming, as well as a place of recreation for ladies and children and gentlemen at all times would prove desirable. They invite visitors to visit on Sundays and other holidays but offer no accommodation after reaching there. Like Bay St. Louis, Waveland has no rest rooms, no community house, like Biloxi, and the result is thousands of people who would come to this section each season go elsewhere with their prestige and patronage.

Waveland's latest project should receive unanimous endorsement and should be put through without causing unnecessary delay. Clermont Harbor has given this section an outstanding example of this kind and one that should be followed.

Too frequently are we deterred from public improvement of one kind or another due too often to the reason there is a disposition to enter into such things on too elaborate and ornate scheme. Finally, projects under such circumstance fall of their own weight and naught results.

PROTECT THE CHILDREN

EVERY driver of an automobile has a tender regard for the rights of the pedestrian when he happens to be the pedestrian. On such occasions they are in a position to understand that approximately 65 per cent of all persons injured or killed in automobile accidents are pedestrians. They are then willing, after a narrow escape from some driver, to believe that a pedestrian is entitled to safety, and that whether he is in the right or wrong the driver should protect him.

We hope that every automobile driver in Bay St. Louis, who reads this, will make up his or her mind to drive carefully, having regard to the presence of children in the streets, the location of schools and playgrounds, and the neutral tendency of children to ignore danger of which they are not fully aware.

Let's give a thought to the children particularly. They furnish one-third of the fatalities that result from automobile accidents. They are entitled to safety. If drivers do not give it to them, then it is time for the state to step in and, by laws strictly enforced, see that the children of Mississippi have as near absolute protection as can be obtained.

L. & N. AND COAST TRAINS

AN EFFORT at retrenchment by the local L. & N. railroad management resulted in crippling the efficiency of the Coast train operating out from New Orleans to the extent the schedule was frequently an hour or two late. Commuters coming out from New Orleans found it to their detriment to say nothing of inconvenience. One day, a commuter tells, he was home that evening to dinner at the late hour of 9 o'clock.

The result has been that much dissatisfaction has arisen. Commuters formed a protective organization and registered such protest and to the extent that the railroad management placed an operator at one of the wayside stations, Lake Catherine.

This revealed that the company did not have one operator between New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, where formerly there was one at every station, facilitating better and thorough operation of all trains and rendering a general service.

It is true, the fortunes of railroads have been hit in two ways, by the depression and more so by other vehicular means of transportation, the latter operating to advantage over the railroads. This is apparent and indisputable arguery for retrenchment on part of the railroads, but it appears railroads are exercising this means of economy to the extent their efficiency and general service are crippled to a damaging extent.

The Sea Coast Echo has ever been a friend of the railroads and a consistent exponent of railroad travel but when its service becomes crippled to the fact general criticism arises and censure follows surely some remedy must be forthcoming.

We hope the L. & N. will be able to see the wisdom of increased accommodation to its patrons at no unbearable draft to its operating funds; that by so doing the trend of railroad travel will not only increase but that it will exceed that of other years.

Our Gulf Coast country is growing in popularity; more people live here than formerly and its desirability as a place to reside is ever increasing. With the expansion of population and increased realty values to a well sustained point, there should be no reason why such a populous section as the Coast should not justify increased and improved railroad facilities and accommodations.

The L. & N. through trains are of the highest type, equal to the finest in the country, but there seems much room for improvement locally. Trains between here and New Orleans should be equally as fine. The schedule is entirely too slow and unattractive to the prospective commuter.

HARVEST QUEEN FESTIVAL FOR ST. STANISLAUS COLLEGE

BAY ST. LOUIS has its Carnival Queen and its May Queen, two outstanding events of the early part of each year, events that attract considerable interest and in which the public is manifestly concerned to that degree that unanimous support is accorded.

However, we are devoid of such events for the fall and winter season. In winter we have the holidays of the year, but the fall is lacking of any affair and the season is void of interest.

And now comes the happy and appropriate suggestion that we have a Harvest Queen festival and it is fitting that such event be held on the last of October days. Such suggestion, has been offered by the Mothers' Club, of St. Stanislaus College, and it is well that a meeting held a few days since resulted in its adoption.

The queen, lucky young lady, will be selected by popular vote, similar to the selection of a May Queen, and already the contest has been inaugurated and the race is on.

Proceeds of this innovation will be used by the Mothers' Club to help defray cost of purchase of a bus for the college, to be equipped as other schools of the kind; that pupils and members of faculty may travel from place to place in athletic past-times and benefits. St. Stanislaus, too, like other business and established endeavors have felt keenly the impress of economic upheaval and welcome such assistance as the public has given it principally through the instrumentality of a parents' organization. However, the time will come, an authority of the college says, when with this assistance the present will be bridged over and with the return of normal times every business will again become self-financing.

A Harvest Queen Festival is new and novel. Its success is already a foregone conclusion. St. Stanislaus College is an integral factor of our city's well-being and success and well merits any and all support its latest project may receive.

THE FLORIDA CANAL

WORK on a ship canal across Northern Florida has been started. It is estimated that one thousand men are already at work and within the next few months seven thousand will be on the job. President Roosevelt has already set aside $5,000,000 to start the construction of this waterway which the estimates say will take $148,000,000 to construct.

The necessity for this canal has long been argued but the recent hurricane emphasized it again. Ships from the Gulf to Atlantic ports are now compelled to go around the Southern end of Florida. South of the Keys, and the danger to shipping was emphasized when the liner Dixie went aground during the recent storm. The project is also expected to furnish work for thousands of men for a long period.

While a canal of this type has been under discussion for scores of years the Southern part of Florida has always objected to it, fearing that it would reduce its importance. Another argument came as engineers differed upon the feasibility of a lock or sea level waterway. Opponents of the latter plan have insisted that the salt water going through the waterway would endanger the fresh water supply of a large part of Florida but this contention is denied by many competent authorities.

The construction of the canal will undoubtedly save much time for ships between Gulf and Atlantic ports, eliminating several hundred miles steaming.

LEWIS STONE announces that upon finishing his new three-year contract with Metro he will retire from the screen. He has been in picture for more than twenty years.

In "Here's to Romance," Nino Martini will be in the cast, as will also Mme. Ernestine Shuman Heink and Maria Gambarelli.

An unusual story of native generosity is brought back from Tahiti by the Metro Company. Several of the parents liked members of the company that they not only named their new-born babies for them but offered to give them the tiny tots.

Barbara Stanwyck is to play the title role in "Annie Oakley." This famous woman on whose life the story is based was supporting her family at the age of nine years by her skill with a rifle. She could split a playing card held with its thin edge towards her.

Since Hollywood began regulating its pictures about a year ago censor boards throughout the country have been reduced seventy-two per cent.

Lily Pons will sing two of her favorite arias and also introduce three new popular songs by Jerome Kern in her forthcoming picture, "Love Song."

Ginger Rogers who is reputed to be receiving $1,325 a week for forty weeks a year, wants the amount doubled before she starts another picture with Fred Astaire.

In the "Great Ziegfeld," William Powell will have the title role, while Louise Rainer will play the part of Anna Held.

Charlie Chaplin is about to announce six pictures for next year; he will star himself in two and star Pauline Goddard in four.

Ivan P. Florheim, the 21-year-old son of the shoe manufacturing company, has moved to Hollywood where he hopes to find success as a film writer.

A $200,000 stage will be dedicated to Will Rogers by his former studio.

Rumor is still linking Mary Pickford's name with that of Buddy Rogers, but both have refused to state whether or not they are engaged.

Sally Eilers is one of Hollywood's most accomplished stars. She flies an airplane, rides mustangs, swims, plays tennis and golf.

Charles Laughton dieted off fifteen pounds to play the part of Captain Bligh in "Mutiny on the Bounty."

"The Feud," is really just "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," and will introduce Marsha Hunt to the screen public.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

COL. SEYMOUR WEISS
(Jackson Daily News)

COL. Seymour Weiss right-hand man and lieutenant-in-chief of the late Huey Long, declares he is out of politics, and hereafter will have nothing whatever to do with public affairs in Louisiana.

Thereby, Col. Weiss shows his wisdom and sets an example that other chieftains of the Long clan might well emulate.

The alliance between Huey Long and Col. Weiss was based wholly on personal friendship. Of all the followers of Long, of all who basked in the sunshine of his favor, Col. Weiss was the least selfish. He had more to lose and less to gain than any of them.

An odd sort of chap is Col. Seymour Weiss—odd in this day and generation when so many human actions have ulterior motives beneath.

He is that rare type of human being who will literally go into the jaws of hell for a friend, whether that friend be right or wrong.

He faithfully served Huey Long because he sincerely loved the man.

He had no political ambitions of any sort—never asked or desired public office, and accepted the position on the Harbor and Dock Commission only because Huey Long forced him to do so.

He has a frank, genial, lovable, open-hearted nature, always prefers peace to conflict and abhors many of the cold, cruel and sordid features of that weird game called politics.

Many, many times he would say to Huey Long, "Let's do this," but Huey would say, "We will do the other thing," and went ahead with his reckless and remorseless methods of punishing enemies when there was no sense in doing so.

So Col. Weiss went along with him right or wrong, still the type of man who, willingly or reluctantly, goes into the jaws of hell for a friend.

Inevitably, such an alliance brought him trouble and caused much mental anguish.

Col. Weiss could have made his way upward in the world without the aid of Huey Long. He is, first and foremost, a hotel manager. There is not a better one in the United States. He is a genius in directing the affairs of large hostels, and a host par excellence. He kept the magni-

SHORT-CUT HIGHWAY
(Biloxi News)

OFFICIALS of the Mississippi highway commission state that their portion of Mississippi-Louisiana shortcut highway between New Orleans and the Mississippi Gulf Coast will be completed within a few weeks and that Louisiana side was nearing completion. They expect to open the road to traffic by October 15. When the road is opened motorists traveling over this route will again witness the striking contrast of road construction in the two states. Louisiana's portion of the shortcut will be of the finest type of road construction. The Mississippi section will be of an inferior type for which the highway commission is offering excuses stating that unless traffic starts using the paving when it is finally laid it will become brittle and begin breaking up. Such type of hardsurfacing means and that it will have to be replaced within a short period of time and that a new highway will have to be constructed in its place at added cost to the taxpayers, while Louisiana will have a permanent road.

The Gulf Coast naturally will derive great benefits from the shortcut with the distance to New Orleans reduced some 20 miles or more and perhaps before the hardsurfacing deteriorates to a great extent a first class highway will replace it.

BABY BONDS AND TUGWELL

(Philadelphia (Miss.) Democrat)

Do you remember Professor Rexford Guy Tugwell?

He is one of the brain trusters, and the boy who conceived the brilliant idea of abolishing all advertising of every sort throughout the United States.

And now we see by news dispatches where the United States government itself is going to run a series of advertisements in several national magazines, urging the purchase of baby bonds.

And the travesty of it all is that the group of magazines includes Colliers and the Saturday Evening Post, two of the bitterest enemies that Roosevelt and the Democratic administration have on this earth today.

Which goes to prove either that the U. S. pays no attention to Prof. Tugwell and his hair-brained theories, or else the government just doesn't know what is going on.

ificent Hotel Roosevelt making money throughout depression when other hotels were running heavily into the red. In his achievement he was handicapped rather than helped by his friendship for Huey Long.

A long story could be written about the friendship between these two men who were markedly dissimilar in many respects—Huey Long, rough, domineering, uncouth, mentally daring, often savage, and Seymour Weiss, polite, affable soft-spoken rarely angered, always a diplomat in dealing with his fellowmen, preferring the methods of peace to the tactics of war.

Col. Weiss says he out of politics henceforth, hereafter and forever. It is the wisest decision he ever made.

IT'S TRUE! By Wiley Padan

"IT'S TRUE!" that Frances Langford's career took its first forward swing five years ago when, after a throat illness, she discovered that her soprano voice had changed to contralto, says artist Wiley Padan. "It was this new voice that brought her success on the air and earned her the title of 'contralto crooner.' The petite, raven-haired singer of the 'Broadway Melody of 1936' made her professional debut on Rudy Vallee's radio hour

SORES

For the treatment of sores on feet, legs or any other part of the body, Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil will be found most effective. This oil, perfected by a distinguished surgeon of the Louisville and Nashville, and Baltimore, has a two-fold action. First, it combats infection. Second, it aids healing. This is usually the treatment you want for a sore.

Besides sores, Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is good for the treatment of boils and skin rashes, itch, etc. Hundreds who have tried everything else for sores and broken out and itching skin, say nothing has given them the relief that Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil has. Try this wonderful treatment for sores on any part of the body or for boils or skin itch and see how beneficial it is.

Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is made by the makers of Gro's Laxative Bromo Quinine and is sold by all druggists at 50c and 60c with guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

Unusual Oyster Growth

L. H. Maue, 909 Holley Street, Biloxi, an old and experienced hand in the oyster industry, has come across something which he has never seen before in the line of seafood curiosity. While tonging under the Ocean Springs bridge last Thursday he found an oyster growing from the mouth of a small bottle. Many oysters have attached themselves to bottles and other objects, but this particular oyster is growing from the mouth of the bottle.

AUTO LICENSE TAGS '36 BLACK AND WHITE TO BE READY DEC. 1.

Columbus (Miss.) Firm Completes 212,000 Plates For Mississippi

Columbus—The embossing plant of the Columbus Marble Works has completed the state's order for 1936 automobile license plates. Thousands of tags were assembled, sorted and prepared for shipment to the 82 sheriffs of Mississippi. Upon orders from the office of the state auditor the tags will not be shipped until several weeks. They do not go on sale until December 1.

The news tags, which are of the lock strip type, are black and white. Around 212,000 tags were turned out. It was the third year that the contract had been awarded the firm. Prior to then the plates were made in Missouri.

Rock-A-Chaw College Paper to Resume Publication Soon

Well established the past three school years, and amply backed with local and out-of-town patronage, St. Stanislaus College semi-monthly publication will resume publication for the 1935-36 session September 28, it was announced by the faculty this week.

The paper is linotyped and printed at home at The Echo plant and preparation is going forward for the appearance of the first number for the new year. The staff has not as yet been announced. It is planned to make The Rock-A-Chaw better with each succeeding number.

Bay St. Louis Bi-County Bridge Apparently In Worse Shape Than Ever

Notwithstanding the State Highway Department promised to repair the Bay St. Louis bi-county bridge to the extent of stopping the rumbling of the loose decking boards everytime a car passed to and fro, and considerable work of spiking the heavy timber boards is evident, the rattling timbers are heard more than ever. If we are to judge from sound the bridge decking is in worse condition than ever and something should be done to stop the disturbing noise, especially heard more so at night and disturbing one's slumbers.

Stop Chills and Fever!

Rid Your System of Malaria!

Shivering with chills one moment and burning with fever the next—that's one of the effects of Malaria. Unless checked, the disease will do serious harm to your health. Malaria, a blood infection, calls for two things. First, destroying the infection in the blood. Second, building up the blood to overcome the effects of the disease and to fortify against further attack. Grove's Tasteless Chills Tonic supplies both these effects. It contains tasteless quinine, which kills the infection in the blood, and iron, which enriches and builds up the blood. Chills and fever soon stop and you are restored to health and comfort. For half a century, Grove's Tasteless Chills Tonic has been sure relief for Malaria. It is just as useful, too, as a general tonic for old and young. Pleasant to take and absolutely harmless. Safe to give children. Get a bottle at any drug store. Now two sizes—30c and $1. The $1 size contains 2 1/2 times as much as the 30c size and gives you 2 1/2 times more for your money.

Pear Recipes by Pupils Of Sellers Consolidated School Home Economics

Pear Mincemeat
20 cups ground pears
7 cups sugar
1 cup molasses
2 pounds raisins
1 cup vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon each, cloves, cinnamon, allspice.
Mix and cook 20 minutes. Seal hot.

Pear Relish
Cover 4 quarts of ground pears with 1 cup of salt. Let stand overnight. In the morning wash and drain well. Chop 8 large bell peppers, 2 red (hot) peppers, 12 dill pickles, 1 quart onions. Mix and cook five minutes.

Make a paste of four tablespoons mustard, one cup brown sugar, four tablespoons flour, 2 quarts vinegar. Cook five minutes. Combine all mixtures and cook 20 minutes. Seal hot.

Pear Conserve
One peck of pears
1/2 peck apples (these may be omitted)
3 oranges (rind and juice ground)
3 lemons, juice.
5 pounds sugar

Chop pears, apples, and oranges, add sugar and lemon juice. Cook until thick. Stir constantly as there is danger of sticking.

Pear Honey
Run pears through a food chopper, using a coarse blade. To each cup of ground pears, allow one cup of sugar. Cook until clear amber colored, not pink. Add one can of crushed pineapple to each three quarts of pears. Let come to a boil and pack in sterilized jars.

Pear Butter
Wash pears, cut into quarters and without peeling boil them until they fall to pieces. Press through a colander to remove cores, seeds and stems. Measure pulp and add one cup sugar to each quart pulp. The addition of one-half teaspoon Vanilla or juice of one half lemon to each gives a pleasing flavor. Add spices to suit taste. Cook mixture slowly until it becomes smooth and thick, stirring frequently to prevent burning. Pack hot butter into clean, hot jars. Seal immediately.

Pear Preserves
1 pound pears
2 cups water
2 cups sugar
1 lemon, sliced thin

The fruit may be preserved whole, in halves or in quarters. Boil sugar and water together for 5 minutes. Add pears, sliced lemon and cook until pears are clear and transparent, and the syrup is thick. Pack into clean, hot jars and seal at once. If hard pears, such as Keiffer, are used, cook them in water until tender, using the water in which they are cooked, for making the syrup. A few cloves or a stick of cinnamon may be added for flavor, using pineapple juice instead of water in the syrup gives a delicious flavor.

Canned Pears
Pare, core, halve or quarter pears; drop immediately into a cold salt-water bath made in proportion of 1 tablespoon salt to 1 quart water, to keep them from discoloring. Boil gently from 4 to 8 minutes in a syrup made with 6 1/2 cups sugar to 1 gallon water, pack hot into jars. Cover with syrup in which pears were boiled. Partially seal and process for 20 minutes in a hot water bath.

Dr. J. F. Manaford, of Clinton, S. C. writes: "I have found that Black Draught is a very effective and safe laxative. When affected by the dull bowels, the distressing and sometimes painful condition of constipation is relieved by the use of Black Draught."
A natural, pure vegetable laxative.

Remove from canner and seal immediately.
Dried Pears
Pare, core, and cut fruit into eighth AS pears discolor quickly, do not let stand long before drying. To prevent discoloration, as the fruit is prepared it may be dipped for one minute into a cold salt bath, using one ounce of salt to one gallon of water. Dry off surface moisture and put into the evaporator, having the temperature gradually to 150 degrees Fahrenheit. Dry for four to six hours, and longer if necessary. Pears may be steamed ten minutes before drying.

Pickled Pears
Make a pickling syrup, using 3 quarts white or brown sugar, 2 quarts cider vinegar. Bag of pickling spices containing 1 tablespoon each whole cloves and allspice and 1/4 pound stick cinnamon. Cook until thickened. Pare and half the pears. Cook the pears in the syrup until tender, and place in jars. Fill jars with the syrup and seal. The pears may be left whole if preferred.

—Mrs. Steller Provazano of New Orleans was the guest Wednesday of Mrs. Kate Conner and other friends at the Bay.

—Mr. Marion Beal visited his mother in Mobile, Ala., over the week end. Mr. Beal is connected with Fahey Drug Store.

—Mrs. Hugh P. Burbank had as her week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jewett of New Orleans who motored back to the big city Sunday night.

—Maybell Winn who is now occupying the attractive little cottage of Miss Mamie Odom, held open house to a number of her friends here and at Pass Christian.

—Mr. Lamar Otis, secretary Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee, which will meet this Friday afternoon at the courthouse, has been a frequent visitor to the county seat recently.

—Mr. Coburn Weston, who resides at Logtown, and a welcome frequent visitor to Bay St. Louis, has been missed heretofore by his many local friends, a victim of chills and fever, having had quite a severe spell.

—Dr. G. G. Gill of New Orleans whose recent visit to the Bay was interrupted by a sudden illness which necessitated his return to the city has returned to complete his usual monthly over night sojourn on the Coast.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ladner, their daughter, Mrs. Ethel Ladner, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ferrill, of Clermont Harbor, motored over to New Orleans Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Charles Jenkins, who died there Sunday, a resident of Clermont Harbor.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flink, recently wedded in this city, came out from New Orleans Sunday and visiting at the home of Mrs. Flink's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Washington street.

—Master Robert Scharff, who has been residing with Mrs. Dickinson while his mother has been ill in New Orleans, has gone to Mege, Miss., where he will remain in the midst of the balmy pines of that section for a while.

—Another attempt at robbery was made Tuesday night at the Beach Drug Store, the invader removing hinges from a back door leading in from a porch structure. Very little was found to have been taken—negligible in extent, it was stated.

—A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Badon, Mrs. C. J. Chadwick and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Moreau, spent Sunday visiting friends at Hammond and Baton Rouge, La., the 180-mile trip of perfect hard-surfaced road proving one of comfort and pleasure.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hurley Hodkins of New Orleans, accompanied by their daughter Miss Gladys Hodkins and Miss Irene Heslin motored to the Bay Sunday to visit old friends and enjoy the fresh seafood dinner at a beach restaurant. Miss Heslin is a valued attachée of the Times-Picayune.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deaux with Police Matron Mrs. M. Gast; Capt. Thos. Baxter, New Orleans Fire Department, and Mr. J. J. McIntyre, Secretary New Orleans Fire Board, motored from New Orleans and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burdahl at their Coleman avenue home, Waveland, on Sunday.

—Interior of the office of W. A. McDonald & Son has been thoroughly renovated and the painters brush has applied the colors of light green and light buff in tasty and fetching contrast. Caladium plants of broad leaves of pink and green, stretched with silver, placed midway along window sash lights, add a touch of freshness. Messrs. McDonald & Son, characteristic of their enterprise, are constantly expanding their business and improving their premises.

—Mrs. Bernard O'Conner, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., but now of Plainfield, N. J., is visiting her sisters, Misses Ruth and Irene Caze-neuve, and aunt, Miss Fannie McGor-ry, at the family home in Main street. Mrs. O'Conner was formerly Miss Clemmie Caze-neuve and the many friends of other days are delighted to see her after a long absence of years.

—Mrs. Julian M. Swoon and sister, Miss Timony, and Mr. Timony Swoon have as their guests at the Swoon summer villa, Mrs. (Dr.) Callan, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Nott, and young daughter, Isabelle Nott, also Mr. Joseph Dempsey, all of New Orleans. Mrs. Swoon will remain until the late Fall season, entertaining house guests from week-end to week-end as all summer.

—One hears considerable comment from time to time regarding people holding public and semi-public position are negligent of meeting their financial obligations, many cases of which are well known here. This is disconcerting and will injure one's chances of continuing holding responsibilities if such important qualification as one meeting their obligations is absent. Surely no one should be re-elected or reappointed if they carry such unsavory reputation. Paying one's debts is a sacred obligation and we are frequently judged by this yardstick of moral measurement.

—Bay city schools, private and public, have resumed classes for the 1935-36 semesters and report enrollment larger than ever. It appears each year our school enrollment increases until that point that both building and teaching forces, particularly the former, are taxed to more than ordinary measure. The quality of our schools meet every requirement, curriculum embraces a wide scope of studies, and there are classes for many of the various academic and vocational demands. This speaks well not only for our city but for the forces responsible for our schools and the executive management.

—Arden Lodge, the summer home of Andrew L. Kuhn of New Orleans, presented an animated scene Saturday night. The occasion was the initiation into the privileges of the Lodge of Mr. Fred Neuminger of Freehold, N. J., and Mr. Charles Headley of Dayton, Ohio. This was the first visit of these gentlemen to the Gulf Coast and their genuine has was determined to prove that Southern hospitality is no myth. He was ably assisted by James Worrell as master of ceremonies and Victor Blais, who presided over the gastronomic department. With its lovely floral decorations and golden lights the Lodge nestled like a rare jewel in its setting of pines.

—The Bay Canning Company, new factory located on the site of the former Peerless Company, has been working regularly daily and employing many people in the process of canning shrimp of which there is plenty. Both fishermen and men and women engaged in the packing department find ample and well-paying employment and the result is easily felt in the various retail business channels of the city. The Bay Canning Company operates under the keen and trained eye of government official, who is ever present, and the place operated under the code prescribed, calling for sanitary precaution as well as the manner in which the work must be done.

—Considerable interest is manifested on all sides regarding the forthcoming football season. Both St. Stanislaus and Bay High have already announced their schedules and games of the best are looked forward to. The Rock-A-Chaws have been in practice for some time and will be heard from in due time, to their credit, St. Stanislaus and Bay St. High. Bay Hi is in training. The campus has been improved with buildings to house the players, with dressing rooms, showers, etc. Coach Scafield is confident Bay Hi will be heard from in victorious form thru the season. Coach Glover of the Rock-A-Chaws has every reason to expect great things from his gladiators of the gridiron.

—Circuit Court for Hancock county for the Fall Term came to a close last week, disposing of considerable number of cases, important inasmuch they were of the nature of damage suits and murder cases, as duly chronicled in our news columns. While Judge White disposed of considerable business, expediting the business of the court in the shortest manner and at least expense to the tax-payers of Hancock county, quite a number of (unimportant) cases were either dismissed or continued, more of the latter, however. Our Judge and court officials have again proven quite efficient and Hancock county is fortunate to that extent. It will be noted the report of the Grand Jury complimented the Judge and officials of the court not only for their courtesy and kindness but for their splendid administrative manner of doing business.

Local Library Has New County Branch at Flat Top Community

A new branch of the Hancock E. R. A. County Library has been opened at Flat Top, Mississippi, where Mr. John Wheat, member of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, has given the small building that was once the business office of his sawmill for its installment. Mrs. Martin, of Flat Top, is in charge of the venture. A box supper which she had planned to give, to bring in money to help fill the shelves of her bookcases, has been postponed temporarily because of a conflict in time, with a supper given by the Flat Top church.

Miss Mary Effie Cameron, one time Supervisor of District Libraries, has been assigned as assistant to Miss Elizabeth Roberts, head librarian at Jackson.

The following books have been transferred to the free shelves of the Hancock E. R. A. County Library:

Death Comes For The Archbishop by Willa Cather.

When Knighthood Was in Flower, by Charles Major.

Story Of My Life, by Helen Keller.

Les Miserables, by Victor Hugo.

The Prince or Somebody, by Lewis Gilding.

The Blonde Lady, by Maurice LeBlanc.

To The Last Man, by Zane Gray.

The Lost Trail, by Zane Gray.

Spirit Of The Border, by Zane Gray.

The Luck of Roaring Camp, by Bret Harte.

The Call of The Wild, by Jack London.

The following books have been added to the Junior reading list:

Moby Dick, by Herman Melville.

1000 Poems for Children, an Anthology.

Pride And Prejudice, by Jane Austen.

Smokey, by Will James.

Story of A Bad Boy, by T. B. Aldrich.

The Review of the Month Club wishes to remind its friends that at its next meeting, on the second Tuesday in October, Miss Effie Graham Power will review the recent novel, Time Out of Mind. The Current Events number on the October program has not yet been filled. Announcement will be made later.

Two Important Real Estate Sales Reported For Current Week

Mrs. Belle H. Penrose, local real estate agent, reports two major sales affected this week, showing a trend of values and demand for realty, one of property on Waveland beach, the other on Jordan river.

Dr. Hyland Miller, of New Orleans, purchased the 282 acre place of Cartwright Eutis, located on the north bank of Jordan river, opposite "Holly Bluff" property of Mrs. Joseph Crump, and "Hallelulah" Penrose place. Dr. Miller stated that he would immediately begin building a family dwelling thereon and other improvements.

The other sale by Mrs. Penrose was that of the George Laroussin place, (formerly the Bobet place), on Waveland beach, to James T. Prowell, of the law firm of Prowell & McBride, of New Orleans, the property measuring 125 feet front with a depth of 12,000 feet. Mr. Prowell will take active possession of the place November 12. Mr. Laroussin owns other beach improved property nearby.

Farm Credit Agent To Be At Courthouse Every Wednesday P. M.

Chas. F. Burriel, of Gulfport has taken over the territory in Hancock County Farm Credit Administration, which was formerly handled by Mr. Geo. M. Foote. Mr. Burriel will be in the County Agent's office every Wednesday afternoon, for the purpose of making collections on loans, made to farmers in Hancock county.

Women's Auxilliary to Have Card Party Oct. 4.

The Women's Auxilliary of the Spanish War Veterans will give a card party at the Hotel Weston on Friday evening, October 4th, at 8 P. M. The Hotel Weston has kindly donated the use of the lobby. The public is cordially invited.

Proceeds are to be used for the relief fund. Tallies 25c each.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Julian M. Brandao and young son, Julian, residents of Monroe, La., have been spending the week in Bay St. Louis. Mr. Brandao is visiting the scenes of his former years, native and graduate St. Stanislaus College. He is an attaché of one of the largest automobile selling firms of that section of Louisiana, holding a responsible position, and came "back home," as he terms it, to spend his vacation. Mr. Brandao and his little family registered at The Answer Hotel, expressing the hope to return to the Coast soon again.

Personal and General

CARDS PROVING THE POPULAR FAST TIME THESE COOLER DAYS.

FALL-LIKE days, with cooler afternoons are ideal for card playing and many are the informal and smaller gatherings of groups who are lured to the fascination of bridge. Foursomes are more popular than ever, said a well-known hostess the other afternoon. They are intimate, informal and most adaptable to small groups. No get-together is larger than a two-table affair at most.

Mrs. John W. Bryan was hostess to a two-table bridge Monday, while Mrs. J. J. Grevenberg, Court street, entertained a foursome Tuesday. These, seemingly, were forerunners during the early part to suite a number of similar affairs for the week. Contract, with its intricacies and ever changing rules, continues to lure and offer unceasing entertainment.

MRS. JOHN W. BRYAN HONOREE OF BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON-BRIDGE.

A number of close friends and sisters of Mrs. John W. Bryan gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles G. Moreau on Wednesday noon of last week at luncheon-bridge, to which Mrs. Moreau was hostess.

A four-course luncheon was served, with the decorative motif in blended shades of red and green. Formal cutting of the birthday cake, with its trio of diminutive lighted candles, followed the luncheon and preceding the two tables of bridge.

MRS. J. N. STEWART ENTERTAINS N. O. GROUP AT BAY HOME.

Mrs. John N. Stewart, whose home, "The Solution," is one of the outstanding and most hospitable on the Bay St. Louis beach, returned to New Orleans Sunday, after a stay here following her trip to Washington.

Mrs. Stewart was hostess Friday of last week to a luncheon for Madame Ida Chernoff, of Los Angeles. A report of the affair says that "brown and red zinnias filled a long white dish in the center of the table, which was covered with a lace cloth. Before the luncheon there was much discussion of heredity, environment, culture and other subjects with Madame Chernoff giving a scene from the movie, "The Champ."

Enjoying Mrs. Stewart's hospitality on this beautiful occasion were Mrs. Charles F. Buck, Jr., Mrs. Joseph E. Friend, Mrs. Edward Crusel, Mrs. Guy Hopkins, Mrs. J. Thornwell Witherspoon, New Orleans; Mrs. Clarence L. Horton, Bay St. Louis; Miss Dorothy Oechsner, Mrs. Victor Bernard, Mrs. Charles A. Farwell, Jr., New Orleans.

MRS. L. H. PRINCE HOSTESS TO BAY THURSDAY CLUB AT KILN.

Mrs. (Dr.) L. H. Prince, whose attractive and hospitable home at Kiln is located in an intriguing setting of plants and flowers, vine-embowered, was the scene last week of entertainment, on the occasion of the meeting of the Bay Thursday Bridge Club, of which she is a member.

A delicious luncheon was temptingly served, the table attractively decorated in a tasteful color scheme of red.

Mrs. Charles J. Mitchell, Mrs. Durrett, of Columbus, Miss., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Norton Haas; Mrs. Millard Toulme, Mrs. Fred Wright all of Bay St. Louis, and Mrs. Love of Kiln, were among those present in addition to the regular members.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Durrett. Among the regular members trophies of the afternoon were captured by Mrs. C. J. Chadwick, winning by first high score; second, Mrs. Norton Haas.

Mrs. Prince was the typical charming hostess and her generosity extended to the very leave-taking time, when she presented each of the guests with plants and flowers from her garden, thus bringing to a close a never-to-be-forgotten party.

MRS. HUBERT DE BEN RETURNS FROM SUMMER SPENT IN MOUNTAINS.

Mrs. Hubert de Ben, who left here during the early summer, accompanied by her young daughter, Melanie, for Hendersonville, N. C., where they spent the summer, returned home the latter part of last week and was joined here by Mr. de Ben from New Orleans. Melanie registered as a boarding student at St. Joseph Academy, St. Augustine, Fla., where she will spend the academic session. Mrs. de Ben will spend the winter in New Orleans this year.

DONALD MARSHALLS TO NEW ORLEANS FOR SCHOLASTIC YEAR.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Marshall, Miss Mary Elba Marshall and Chas. Marshall, who make their home in Bay St. Louis and spend the winter at New Orleans, left a few days ago and will visit their vine-covered home in Boardman avenue, periodically. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are enthusiastic boosters for this section and live this very spirit. Mr. Marshall is a member of the faculty of the Boys' High School, New Orleans.

DR. AND MRS. J. C. BUCKLEY RETURN FROM HOT SPRINGS.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES

HIKE TO CCC CAMP

Troop 208 will hike out to the CCC Camp at Kiln, on Saturday, September 28. The scouts are to leave at eight A. M. and plan to return about 6 P. M. At the camp, the scouts are to be conducted about the premises and will benefit by observing the camp.

Naturally the attention of scouts is focused on any sort of camp. A government owned or operated camp is bound to have the efficiency and discipline which are the ideals of the scouts.

Ever since the CCC Camps have been organized, the scouts have been keenly interested and now Troop 208 is glad to have the opportunity to visit one.

Troop 208 has begun a series of activities which are entertaining the present members and which are bringing back our former members.

Friday night, Sept. 20, there was an "ice cream" party in front of the Goldman residence on Second street. The troop will be reorganized and the former Flying Eagle and Rattlesnake patrol will become the Panther and Hawk patrols. We plan to obtain flags and patrol medallions as soon as possible.

The traffic patrol "Carries On," the members for the week of Sept. 23-27 being: Mark Smith, in charge; Emile Gex, Donald Nelson, Wesley Hicks and Harry Peairs.

EDWIN FUCICH, Scribe.

PUBLIC SAFETY

BOY Scout Troop 208 has resumed the traffic patrol duty on the streets surrounding Bay High School. This is so the children may cross the streets in safety without fear of any reckless driving. This is a form of public safety performed a two-week stay at Hot Springs, Ark., where they were located at one of the hotels of that place. Both took the baths and were vastly benefited by the waters and fortnight relaxation. Dr. Buckley, professional, unusually busy summer professional, combined his well-earned vacation with a two-week course treatment at the famous baths.

Motoring, the Buckleys went one route and returned by another thus seeing the country intervening as well. Returning they visited the Capitol at Baton Rouge. Their return home is noted with interest.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR YOUNG MISS ARCENEAUX.

One of the happiest events of the week was the birthday party given by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Arceneaux in honor of their daughter Lionell. A number of the friends of the honoree were present and the occasion one of much enjoyment.

The date was marked by many handsome presents and happy felicitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lorch have closed their summer villa for the season and returned to their home at 2323 Napoleon avenue, for the winter, after a pleasant season spent in Bay St. Louis. They plan to spend week-ends frequently during the mild periods of the winter.

by the Scouts and since it is for the good of the community we ask the public to please cooperate by driving carefully near the school and to obey the boys on traffic duty. They are equipped with police whistles and will soon be wearing red bands on their arms as badges of their public service.

Last year this partoling was inaugurated and successfully conducted. We are certain that this year will be equally successful.

The scouts on duty the first week were:

Mark Smith, in charge; Harry Peairs, Elsie Byrd, Norris Tyrd, and D. Rando.

The scouts on duty the week of Sept. 16-20, were:

Harry Peairs, in charge; Herman Baxter, William Goldman, David McDonald.

Mark Smith has been appointed head of the traffic duty, subject to advice of the Scribe.

We plan to submit a weekly report of the traffic duty to the local paper.

—SCRIBE, Troop 208.

Flying Eagle Patrol of Troop 217

Members—
T. Fayard, Patrol Leader; H. Thomosich, Asst. Patrol Leader; E. Piazza, E. Arceneaux, A. Biehl, L. Marengo, B. Osbourn, R. Chini-coase, all patrol members.

This patrol has just lately been organized and is not yet settled, most of these boys are new in the troop, they are all intelligent boys and are sure that they will be the reason of this patrol being a success.

Watch for next issue of the Troop Committee.

—W. GORDON, Scribe.

Benefit For Ben Luxich, Lakeshore, And Sick Children

There will be a benefit dance on the evening of Saturday, October 5, at Oakdale Pavilion, Lakeshore, for the benefit of Ben Luxich, resident of that place, who is ill at the hospital and in dire needs of funds for his family and self. In addition, two of the children are also ill and in need.
